Hair Talk with JoJo the hair care expert

Q. I need a wig and everybody keep telling me to go to Terry's Place wig shop. I've never heard of this place. What makes it so great? What kind of wigs do you have?

A. Terry's Place Wig Salon has a variety of wigs, including Bobbi Boss, Carmen, It's a wig, and Born

Free just to name a few. We've been on the Ave of Fashion since 1974. Clients find it's more than just getting a name brand wig that makes the shop special. Terry's Place gives you first class service. Our staff is dedicated and supportive in helping you find the look and color you're looking for. If trimming or thinning is necessary, our dedicated stylists will assist you. Restyling your favorite old girlfriend (wig) is also available. Our quality and prices are the best in town. You'll want a different girlfriend (wig) for every outfit. We are Black owned and operated.

Q. My sister goes to Terry's Place to get her hair done. She's thinning and told me about a new shampoo and conditioner you're using for thinning hair. What is it and is it for sell?

A. We had a game changer to hit the market for thinning hair made by Influence hair company. It's called "Its Natural Rosemary Carbon shampoo" and Rosemary Carbon conditioner. This is an all-natural shampoo and conditioning system using Natural DHT-Blocking Herbs that medical experts have proven to safely stop hair loss. When these ingredients are added to carbon, the results can be amazing. The carbon cleans and exfoliates the scalp while the Rosemary helps the herbs to penetrate deeper into the hair follicles. For best results, use bi-weekly for at least 120 days. Science and nature are working together.

Q. Terry's Place used to be the number 1 Eyelash, eyebrow arching place in the city. I remember waiting hours to get an arch. It was the place to be. I recently moved back to the city and went to get my eyes done after work and you were closed. Is the ownership still the same and do you still do arches and lashes? If so what are your hours?

A. Yes Terry's Place is still open and operated by the Terry family, and we're still laying out those eyes. Although our business hours have changed for our estheticians, they currently work from 11-2:30 Tues through Friday and 11:00-6:00 on Saturday. The Queen of Lashes, Mrs Terry, is no longer with us but her legacy lives on. Her advanced training in eye enhancement is unmatched. Appointments and walk-ins are welcomed.

California passes bill banning discrimination based on hair styles

By Bo Tefu and Atonio Ray Harvey
SPECIAL TO THE SUN

On Aug. 27, the State Legislature passed Assembly Bill (AB) 1815, a law that bans hair-based discrimination related to race, making its way to Gov. Gavin Newsom's desk for a final signature. This bill seeks to expand the state's civil rights laws to include protections based on hairstyles and hair texture such as locks, braids, and twists, and protective hairstyles that are popular among Black people. California was one of the first states to enact laws that protect people from discrimination in schools and employment under the CROWN Act in 2019. According to the Economic Policy Institute, Black women's hairstyles are 2.5 times more likely to be perceived as unprofessional as compared to those of White women.

The CROWN Workplace Research Study revealed last year that 66% of Black women change their hair for a job interviews – most of them from curly to straight to appear more professional.

AB 1815 is one of 14 reparations bills introduced by the California Legislative Black Caucus (CLBC). The bills were based on recommendations in the final report published by the California Reparations Task Force in 2023.

The task force recommended more than 100 policy proposals that promote racial justice and justify reparations.

Assembly member Akilah Weber (D-La Mesa), the newly elected chair of the CLBC, authored AB 1815.

"We have changed a harm that has been given to people for generations that stated that beauty only occurs if you look a certain way if your hair is only a certain way," said Weber. "This particular bill repairs that harm."

Weber acknowledged that AB 1815 was one of the least controversial in the 14-bill package. Although the bill was amended a few times, it faced minimal opposition from lawmakers.
