Hair Talk with JoJo the hair care expert

Q. Mr. JoJo my son has a short high top fade type style and he wants his top curly but not hard like gel or moose. What product would you suggest we try?

A. I recommend Influance Shea Butter moisture Lock. This is a moisture rich lotion that helps to make the hair curl without making it hard or leaving a buildup. It also conditions and protects dry hair while restoring softness and shine.

Q. JoJo you talk a lot about Influance products, but when I go to the supply store I can't find them. Are they only sold online?

A. The Influance Product line is only sold in professional beauty salons; you won't find them in the supply stores. These products are designed specifically for stylists with knowledge of ethnic hair so that they can advise you on what you really need for your hair's beauty and condition. Influance is a spin off from Dudley Products, and they keep the Dudley tradition by training and educating stylists through seminars and workshops with chemists and trained professionals to ensure that the people selling you products know what they're talking about.

Q. JoJo I wear wigs, and I've seen two ladies on different occasions with cute wigs on. They both told me to go to Terry's Place. Can you give me your hours of operation and location and do you sell all types of wigs? Can I get them cut or thinned out if I need some customizing?

A. It's good to hear such positive reviews from our clients. My mom, Ms Terry, always said a good name is better than silver and gold. Ms Terry opened her first wig shop in 1968, and we moved to 19139 Livernois in Detroit MI 48221 on the Ave of Fashion in 1974. We sell human hair wigs as well as synthetic wigs. Ms Terry liked to call wigs "girlfriends," and she'd often say every woman needs a girlfriend. Our store hours are Tue-Sat 10-5:30 daily our wig stylist is available for trimming, customizing and re-styling your old girlfriends Wed-Fri from 10;30-2 and Sat from 12-5. We also have a full service beauty salon and our operators are ready to take care of your hair underneath your girlfriend so when you take her off you're still cute. Stop by and find out why everybody is talking about Terry's Place Wigs..... You're Beauty is our Pleasure.

When your hair is on your mind, drop JoJo a line or hit me up on Facebook Terry's Wigs or Instagram. Email joelpanther1@aol.com or stop by Terry's Place at 19139 Livernois Ave., Detroit, Mich. 48221. Please call (313)863-4014.

Sport Clips Haircuts invites clients to support veterans' futures during 13th Annual "Help A Hero" Scholarship Campaign

PRNewswire/ -- Veteran-founded Sport Clips Haircuts is launching its 13th annual campaign for the VFW's "Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship" program, giving clients nationwide an opportunity to help veterans and service members pursue education and career goals after military service.

The campaign runs Oct. 5 through Nov. 14, 2026, with donations accepted at participating Sport Clips locations. On Veterans Day, Nov. 11, participating stores will offer free haircuts to veterans and active-duty service members.

Since the program began, Sport Clips, its clients, franchisees, team members, and product partners have helped raise nearly $17 million, funding more than 3,600 scholarships through the VFW Foundation for veterans and service members pursuing education and training for civilian careers.

"As an Air Force veteran, I understand how important it is for those who have served to have opportunities to build what comes next," said Gordon Logan, founder and chairman of Sport Clips and a VFW Life member. "Help A Hero is about more than saying 'thank you' on Veterans Day. It is about investing in the lives of veterans and service members as they pursue an education, a career, and a future beyond their military service. Our clients have embraced this mission year after year, and their generosity is what makes these scholarships possible."

"Every year, I meet veterans who did everything right, they served, they earned their education benefits, left the military and then watched those benefits run out before their degree was finished. That gap shouldn't cost a veteran their future," said VFW National Commander Cory Geisler. "Sport Clips Haircuts and their clients' generosity directly closes that gap for our veterans and military families. In today's economy, every dollar matters more than ever, and this support isn't just funding a scholarship, it's easing a real financial burden on families who have already given so much."

This year, Cincinnati Bengals defensive tackle Landon Robinson, a 2026 U.S. Naval Academy graduate and Marine Corps second lieutenant, will help raise awareness for the campaign. Cincinnati selected Robinson in the seventh round of the 2026 NFL Draft, and he is serving in the reserves while pursuing his professional football career.

Help A Hero's impact is also reflected in this year's campaign through U.S. Army veteran Michael Ventura, a three-time scholarship recipient pursuing a Master of Fine Arts at Texas State University. Ventura served more than three years in the Army, including time in South Korea, before eventually settling in Austin to pursue education and a career in creative writing. He will graduate in fall 2027, after serving as a teaching assistant and teaching creative writing at the Hays County Jail, using writing as an outlet for others the way it became one for him.

The VFW's "Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship" program provides up to $5,000 per semester toward tuition and fees for veterans and service members ranking E-5 and below. To learn more, apply for a scholarship, and find stores participating in this year's campaign, visit SportClips.com/Hero.
